8 Travels & Vacations

HERE ARE A DOZEN QUESTIONS to inspire your personal history this month. Answer all twelve, or expound upon one question per week as part of the #52stories project from FamilySearch.

1. What were your most common childhood vacations like—road trips, visits to grandma’s house, camping trips, weekends at the lake or the beach?
2. What was the biggest, most exotic vacation you took with your family when you were a child? What memories stand out?
3. How many different states and countries have you visited throughout your life? Which were your favorites?
4. Do you have one special vacation spot that you return to again and again? How did you find it? What draws you back? What do you love about it?
5. What was the longest continuous vacation of your life? How long were you gone? Do you remember how much it cost?
6. What have been your most memorable travel disasters? What lessons did you learn? Were you able to laugh in the moment or only after the fact?
7. What are all the different modes of transport you’ve tried: motorcycle, car, van, bus, train, raft, canoe, sailboat, gondola, cruise ship, airplane, hot-air balloon, rickshaw, horse, wagon, camel?
8. Have you ever travelled to a place that you could imagine yourself moving to permanently? What did you love about it? What does it offer that can’t be found at home?
9. What are the most memorable meals or exotic foods you’ve tried on any of your travels?
10. Are there any notable tourist destinations within easy driving distance of your home that you’ve never visited—even though people travel there from all over the world?
11. Who have been your favorite travelling companions over the years? Who was the most adventurous and spontaneous? Who was the most dependable and prepared?
12. What future destinations are on your vacation wish list? Which of them do you truly believe you will see in your lifetime?
